OUR VALUES

Starting out as a team of college pals, we have managed to stay togeth-er despite the passage of time, distance, and external constraints. We grow our team by working with people who share our values: humor, experimentation, horizontality, and self-discipline.

Quality Assurance

Each project gets its dedicated quality assurance team using our custom-built template sites as a proving ground. We ensure every milestone is achieved from the outset to the final destination.

Stable Performance

The first goal of every web developer ought to be to ensure the site's reliability. We keep an eye on each project around the clock to ensure it doesn't fall short of expectations
